Óscar Llorens

Óscar Llorens is a Spanish artist born in Madrid in 1975. He worked as an illustrator for various advertising agencies and magazines, but always felt the need to explore his creativity in a more personal way. Inspired by the nostalgia of his childhood, Llorens began creating works of art that reflected his most endearing memories, colorful characters, and everyday situations that bring us closer to the most important years of our lives. His style is vibrant and cheerful, full of details that invite us to explore every corner of his creations. Throughout his career, Llorens has worked for clients around the world, including the Washington Post, Le Monde or Cirque du Soleil, among others. His work has also been exhibited in numerous galleries, both in Spain and abroad. Llorens' work is a journey into childhood, through endearing and colorful characters that make us smile and remind us how important it is to enjoy life.
