Press Release

As with Franck Gehry's architecture, deconstructivism seems to preach anarchy, although every element has its place. Linearity, minimalism and neatness are sometimes unappealing when compared to the energy of tumult, cacophony and dispersion! We all need a bit of disorder in our lives. In the manner of Gérard Garouste, currently on show at the Centre Pompidou, turn everything upside down and blur the lines, because as everyone knows, chaos is very often organised. Upside down, boy you turn me...
