Press Release

Sand is a colour that runs through art history like a wandering light, from the ochres of cave paintings to the golden tones of Turner's landscapes. Soft yet full of character, it awakens in us the desire to build, as we once did with our ephemeral castles by the water's edge. It invites the eye to travel, to explore, to dream. With it, each work becomes a sensitive field of exploration, somewhere between nature, memory and imagination. For the sun and the sky and the sand...
