The Petit Palais in Paris is showcasing the works of Finnish painter Pekka Halonen, whose delicate palette, gentle snowy landscapes, and infinite variety of whites captivate the eye. His paintings, bathed in pastel shades, exude a sense of calm and clarity that invites contemplation. This exhibition inspired us to evoke lightness, weightlessness, and floating forms—in other words, to get some fresh air. In these troubled times, nothing is more precious than rising up for a moment, gaining height, and surrendering to the breath of the wind, silence, and peace.
