Press Release

In an industrial loft with brick walls, in the heart of Manhattan or the City, the space soars and breathes. The vertiginous ceilings are matched by monumental windows, letting light flood in and providing the perfect backdrop for large, slender artworks. One can imagine sinking into an Eames armchair, an Old Fashioned in hand, gazing out at the city stretching beyond the floor-to-ceiling windows. Echoing Andy Warhol’s Factory or reinvented artists’ studios of yesteryear, the space invites freedom and creativity, far removed from any sense of confinement. Our selection of the week is inspired by this loft-style spirit, these vertical lines and these open perspectives.
