Press Release

Summer arrived yesterday, bringing with it a palette of colours blending the turquoise of the crystal-clear waters, the ochre of the sun-warmed shores and the deep greens of the seaweed. The early heat is already stirring a desire to get away and heralds seaside holidays, whether on the shores of the Mediterranean or facing the endless horizons of the ocean, and this palette celebrates those moments of freedom and rest finally granted after long months of activity. And for those spending the summer in the city, there's no need to leave the streets to catch the scent of sea spray: certain works of art, through their shades and light, have the power to transport us instantly to seascapes. Summertime, and the living's easy&hellip;
