Press Release

The decades may pass, but the allure of a day at the beach never fades. Just revisit one of Éric Rohmer's sun-drenched films or an Alain Delon classic from the 1960s, and you'll see that some things are forever: striped parasols, oversized sunglasses, straw hats, and long afternoons by the sea. There’s an effortless elegance to these summers that time can't touch. So tie a silk scarf around your hair, slip into a convertible, and set your course for Saint-Tropez. This week's selection captures the carefree glamour of the French Riviera in its golden age—a world of sunshine, dolce vita, and endless summer days. Who says the good old days were better?
